TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Cancellation by Registrants

Registration will be confirmed on receipt of payment of the applicable fee. If a registrant is unable to attend, another person may be substituted with a minimum of one week prior written notice at no additional cost.

Any registrant who cancels their registration will be entitled to a refund based on the following schedule:

Request received on or before August 9, 2024. 90% of the registration fee

Request received from August 10 to August 22, 2024..... 50% of the registration fee

Request received after August 23, 2024..... No Refund

Course Changes or Cancellation

The Course Directors reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to make changes to the faculty, speakers, content and order of presentation of the program, or to cancel the Course should circumstances so indicate.

In the event of cancellation by the Course Directors, a full refund of the registration fee paid will be made to registrants who shall remain solely responsible for any expenses incurred or other consequences related to their planning to attend the Course.

DISCOUNTS

Discounts (if applicable) may not be combined; i.e., only one discount may be applied per registrant.

If you have any questions about discounts, please write to: education@ciarbny.org

PRIVACY MATTERS

Information provided upon registration will be used to administer the Course and registrants’ contact information may be included in materials distributed by the Chartered Institute and Columbia Law School to faculty and other Course attendees for educational, networking and marketing purposes.

The Course will be recorded and the recording may capture the images and voices of the registrants. The recording may be used by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and/or Columbia Law School for educational, networking and marketing purposes.

TECHNICAL ISSUES

Technical difficulties may arise from time to time that, notwithstanding the organizers’ reasonable efforts may impair the participation of one or more registrants. Any registrant who is allowed, in exceptional circumstances, to participate remotely, will be responsible for having suitable equipment and adequate internet connectivity.

FINANCIAL AID POLICY

Full-time law students enrolled in a law school in New York, Connecticut, or New Jersey (i.e., U.S. states within CIArbNY Branch Territory) and New York-admitted attorneys seeking CLE credit may be eligible for financial assistance in the form of a reduced or waived registration fee.

Applicants for assistance should (a) register online using the registration link provided above, and (b) submit a scholarship request (also online, as directed following completion of the registration form) no later than August 23, 2024. Requests should detail in a few sentences the basis of the applicant’s financial need, including the nature of their current employment, if any, and gross annual income as well as a description of the applicant’s interest in taking the Comprehensive Course. The Course Directors may request additional information to complete the scholarship request. Please understand that without a completed scholarship request, the applicant may be notified that the scholarship registration has been canceled and the request denied. All timely completed requests will be considered. Decisions will be made on or about August 30, 2024.

* If you are unable to complete registration or payment online, please write to treasurer@ciarbny.org for assistance.
